

1
2
3
4
5
6 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
7 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

8 UNITED STATES,

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 ELDON LEINWEBER,

12 Defendant.

CASE NO. 23-cr-168

ORDER

13
14 This matter comes before the Court on Defendant Eldon Leinweber's
15 unopposed motion for authorization to transfer records under protective order.

16 Having considered the motion and the relevant record, the Court GRANTS the 17 motion and orders as follows:

- 18 1. Leinweber may transfer any records or information obtained in discovery
19 or investigation of this case that are subject to the existing protective
20 order at United States v. Leinweber, 2:19-cr-00209-WFN-1 (E.D. WASH.),
21 Dkt. Nos. 21, 23 to the Washington State Attorney General's Office.
22
23

1 2. Leinweber must provide the Attorney General's Office a copy of the
2 existing protective order if he transfers any records or information as
3 contemplated above.

4 If Leinweber wishes to bind the Attorney General's Office to the terms of the
5 existing protective order, the Attorney General's Office must agree to be bound by
6 the protective order and submit to the Court's jurisdiction for the purpose of 7 enforcing the protective order's terms. See, e.g., United States District Court For
8 The Western District of Washington Model Stipulated Protective Order, Exhibit A,
9 Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound.

10
11 Dated this 4th day of December, 2023.

12

13 _____
14 Jamal N. Whitehead
15 United States District Judge
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23